Inc. Magazine Reveals Its 27th Annual List of America’s 500 Fastest-Growing Private Companies

BlueRadios Ranks No. 369
With Three-Year Sales Growth of 809.3%

NEW YORK, August 20, 2008 – Inc. magazine today ranked BlueRadios, Inc. No. 369 on its 27th annual Inc. 500 list of the fastest-growing private companies in the U.S. The list is the most comprehensive look at the most important segment of the economy – America’s independent-minded entrepreneurs. Companies such as Zappos, Intuit, GoDaddy, Under Armour, Jamba Juice, American Apparel, Oracle and hundreds of other powerhouses gained early exposure as members of the Inc. 500.

“If you want to find out which companies are going to change the world, look at the Inc. 500,” said Inc. Editor Jane Berentson. “These are the most innovative, dynamic, fast-growing companies in the nation – the ones coming up with solutions to some of our knottiest problems, creating systems that let us conduct business faster and easier, and manufacturing products we soon discover we can’t live without. The Inc. 500 list is Inc. magazine’s tribute to American business ingenuity and ambition.”

BlueRadios is a worldwide leader in providing wireless Bluetooth® data and voice communications for a range of commercial and industrial applications. The Company designs and develops wireless hardware and software end-to-end networking solutions within the Bluetooth international standard and provides a complete family of products and services. BlueRadios was founded in 2002 and has sold over a million Bluetooth radio modules and can provide a complete range of embeddable Bluetooth products.

“Our clients buy our products because they are able to produce cost-effective solutions that are reliable and easy to integrate,” said Mark Kramer, president and founder of BlueRadios. “We have the most complete set of firmware profiles and features in the industry and over 500 clients around the world.”
The 2008 Inc. 500, as revealed in the September issue of Inc. magazine reported aggregate revenue of $13.7 billion. Not only did sales for this year’s top 50 growers outstrip those of last year’s top 50 by $541 million, but this year’s fastest 50 also boasted a staggering 47 percent jump in average three-year growth from last year’s top of the class. Additionally, the 2008 Inc. 500 companies were engines of job growth, having created more than 51,414 jobs since those companies were founded.
